WHITE HOUSE GOSSIP.

MAINE MEN ANXIOUS TO SECURE SOME FEDERAL PATHONAGE.

Fancy Features of East Room Reception
Wanted by President to Kiss Her—A Woman's Sad Misake—Fainous Checks—Washington—National.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The president has been called to the White House, visiting them S. S. Brown and L. M. Stebbins, of the state Democratic committee, and William H. Moody. Mr. Brown has been a very frequent caller at the White House. There being no Democrat in congress from Maine, he had something to say in the matter of federal patronage in that state. Mr. Brown has, however, not been as successful in getting the favor of the president as he desired, though he was much disappointed. The Maine Democrats want all the offices in that state that are in the gift of the administration, and they make no secret of their desire. The New York Times says that the president has given a hearty endorsement of F. S. Boutwell's nomination to the cabinet. F. S. Boutwell announced that the discussion of the morning session would be in relation to the party journal—the Socialist weekly German publication, issued in the interest of Socialism.

The publication of "the Socialist" Dismissed—No "Ad" Accepted.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—The Socialist congress was called to order at Scherzer's public hall. No motion no change was made in the presiding officers, with the exception of the election of a new executive committee.

The New York Times says that the president has given a hearty endorsement of F. S. Boutwell's nomination to the cabinet.

Rather an amusing incident occurred during the public reception in the east room among those who waited in the east room for a long time for the privilege of shaking the hand of the president. A little girl was busily engaged looking out and fashionably dressed lady, who held by the hand a little girl probably three years of age. The little girl was hardly as pleased looking as her mother, and when she saw the president she turned to her mother and said: "Mother, kiss him." Her mother replied: "My dear, it was the president's duty to see all children, and when called, to shake hands with them." The girl said: "I was not here by those standing about the president, however, did not kiss the girl. He shook her hand and then shook the hand of another, who walked off very much disinterested. Every one except the mother enjoyed the incident.

The next lady who came along made a mistake and gave one of the doorknobs which were fastened to either side of the door to the president, receiving, however, a sharp grasp of the hand. The doorknobs called her attention to the mistake, but she passed along without hearing what the doorknobs said, being completely absorbed in her admiration of the president. After she left, the lady who noticed that she had made the mistake told her of it. She immediately returned, but by that time the reception was over, and called on the president again.

"I have never felt so bad in my life," she remarked to another doorknob. "Just think of it. I came four hundred miles to shake hands with the president, and now I have to leave him again, and have only shook the hand of his doorknobs."

There are a number of handsome and historical clocks in the White House. The clock in the Cabinet Room is said to be a candlestick that has been chosen for its sound, that sounds frequently wait to hear it strike. It is a modern affair but has many admirers. There is a clock in Miss Cleveland's room that has been going with the interruption of an hour for twenty-five years. In the president's bedroom there is another beautiful clock. In the Blue Parlor the famous clock, once the property of Napoleon Bonaparte, is still preserved. The Elysée, with its bells, kept in the Green Room and rung when James Monroe was president.

The chisel of the proposed Church of the Covenant was opened for inspection. It is a short, slight, swarthy-complexioned man, dressed in the plain rough clothes of a workman, rang the tones of the front door of the White House.

He was questioned concerning his name.

Mr. Phillips, a liberal subscriber to the interests and purposes for which the Socialists was published, this result was extremely satisfactory and exceeded the most sanguine expectations.

The following resolutions were adopted in reference to the future publication of the Socialist:

That the expenses of the publication be borne by the party and paid out of the national treasury, that due to the Socialist b

THE EVENING BULLETIN

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1885.

Hoo cholera is prevailing in one-half the counties of Kansas.

The Postmaster General has decided that there shall be no special postal deliveries on Sundays.

THERE were one hundred and thirty-five new cases of cholera and fifty-one deaths at Palermo Monday.

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY, who has been in failing health for several months, is reported dangerously ill at New York.

HOADLEY and Foraker will "divide time" at the Toledo opera house to-night, in a discussion of the issue in the Ohio campaign.

It has been said that Americans dress finer than the people of the old country. What if they do? It's our honest opinion there's nothing too good for "us Americans" to wear.

HON. O. P. HOGAN, Representative from Grant County, is dead. Two years ago his son was elected to the Legislature but sickened and died before he was able to take his seat. Quite a coincidence.

AMERICAN women use four times as much silk in proportion to population as the women of Europe. Of the $15,000,000 worth of silk manufactured at Zurich, Switzerland, more than half of it, it is said, is brought to this country.

THE immediate delivery system in the postal service is growing in favor among the people of Cincinnati. The first day the law went into effect only thirty-one letters were delivered. Last Monday there were ninety-en, a trebling of the business in five days.

THE "dudes" of Cincinnati are about to meet with a serious misfortune. The merchant tailors of that place held a meeting this week and decided to "publish the names of all persons who refuse to pay their tailors' bills," on the programmes of the various places of amusement.

A FRIEND of General Simon Bolivar Buckner states that he is serenely indifferent to political promotion. If he is nominated for Governor he will accept, but if he fails to get the nomination he will not worry over it. Although immersed in the forests of Hart County, many miles from a railway station, the office-seekers manage to seek him out and annoy him. —[Louisville Commercial.]

The election in Ohio takes place next Tuesday. A full State ticket and members of the Legislature are to be chosen. A strong effort will be made by both parties to secure a majority in the Legislature, as a U. S. Senator will be chosen by the voters of the state. A public meeting will be called by the mayor to adopt measures for the detection and punishment of the criminals.

Cowhiding Affairs.
PHILADELPHIA Oct. 8.—A cowhiding affair occurred on Chestnut street, in which a man by the name of Piercy, formerly employed as a reporter on the Times, was beaten. D. Cooper, author and editor of the journal. The affair grew out of the alleged opening of a letter addressed to Piercy by Cooper. Piercy gave bail for his appearance before a magistrate.

A BOLD BAD MAN.

Noted Burglar Captured—Escape—Recaptured—Fights—Jail at Last.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Dobson Kershner after a nervous struggle succeeded in landing in jail one of the most despicable characters that ever annoyed the officers of justice in eastern Pennsylvania. He answers to the name of Jeff Davis.

Last August he had been taken into court to be tried for burglary, he leaped from the court house window, and by a desperate rash got through a crowd below, and escaped. Since then he has been giving great annoyance to the police wherever he has travelled, tattooing small boys with hideous pictures in indelible ink.

A few days ago he was shadowed at Lebanon and arrested. That night he broke the bonds of his confinement, and escaped, and again failed to jail and when discovered, he had nearly succeeded in tunnelling the wall. Another hour and he would have completed a hole large enough to enable him to drop thirty feet to the pavement and escape.

On his way to Reading he made a desperate resistance on the train and had to be beaten into submission. There are charges of arson, robbery, and other crimes, and he is two feet seven inches tall, of Herculean build and boasts that no prison walls are strong enough to hold him.

Niagara Falls Park.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—The Niagara Park commissioners will meet at the Falls this week for the purpose of opening negotiations with the proprietors of land to be used for the Canadian park. The proposed park occupies an area of 15 acres and extends along the bank of the river two and a half miles from the south side of the ferry road to the head of the rapids. Several waterfalls may also be included in the park. The territory includes all the points from which the best views of the falls and rapids can be obtained. The commissioners of land which is clearly defined and bounded, and which has been appropriated to be appropriated and the commissioners have been authorized to proceed with the appraisement of the land so selected. The land is owned by sixteen different proprietors and there are eleven persons on it as tenants. The work is progressing favorably.

Dynamite Outrages.

ORANGEVILLE, Oct. 8.—An attempt was made to blow up with dynamite the residences of Police Magistrates Monroe and provincial Constable Thomas Anderson, in the city. The doors of both houses were blown in, but none of the occupants were injured. The cause of the outrage appears to be the commencement of prosecutions against the violators of the strict liquor laws by these magistrates. A public meeting has been called by the mayor to adopt measures for the detection and punishment of the criminals.

POSTMASTER A. C. KISSPEE informs us that the business in the immediately deliverable department of the postoffice at this place is increasing steadily. He thinks the system will become very popular and successful in the course of a few years.

MISS KATE DALY, milliner for Miss Mattie Carr, left last night for Cincinnati where she will spend a week or ten days acquainting herself with the newest styles of fabrics and trimmings. Those who wish to keep pace with the fashions will do well to wait until Miss Daly returns.

By a card published in this issue of the BULLETIN, it will be seen that Mr. F. A. Savage, of Fern Leaf, is a candidate for the office of County Surveyor, subject to the primary election, Saturday. Mr. Savage is a clever and industrious citizen, and has been discharging the duties of the office in a very acceptable manner since last May. If he should be elected he will make a worthy and efficient surveyor.

LADIES wishing fall and winter millinery, would do well to defer purchasing until they examine the stock selected by a leading milliner, expressly for Doyle's Parian Millinery Establishment, and which will arrive in ten days, consisting of the most exclusive styles that cultured taste could design, elegant in material, mode, and workmanship. Goods, and novelties will be added weekly, as they appear in the market. Misses' and children's hats in great variety. All will be sold at the lowest prices.

This Paris Kentuckian in alluding to the departure of Rev. D. A. Beardsey and family from that place says: "Brother Beardsey and his interesting daughters made many friends in Paris, who deeply regret their departure. Miss Mary had lately graduated at Sayre Institute, and was a great addition to the social circle of Paris. Brother Beardsey has made our office one of his resorts when down on the square, and in common with his congregation we part with him with sincere regret. May the paths of himself and lovely daughters be strewed with flowers."

Very Poor Economy.

Some people make a business of cheating themselves, either by eating very mean and cheap food, or else by eating too small a quantity of good food. Either way is a bad policy as it would be to buy a coffin instead of a suit of good clothes, just because the coffin would cost less. Poor diet means impoverished blood; and that means misery. Brown's Iron Bitters enriches the blood, gives it the iron it needs, and tones up the whole system. Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, malaria, etc.

The following letter explains itself:

FRANKFORT, Ky., October 1, 1853.

Captain E. W. Fitzgerald, Mayfield, Ky.—

I beg to advise that orders for the discharge of members of your company have been sent to you, and that you will receive written instructions to come at an early date (of which the exact date will be given you) to receive only the services, taking possession of the property of the State and returning same to the State, so as to release the State from the expense of delay and trouble. The expenses of the property of the State will release you from all liability on your bond for same.

The company will be mustered out of service daily (except Sunday) at 8 a.m. She leaves on her return trip at 8 p.m.

The W. H. Brown makes two trips daily (except Sunday) between this place and Augusta, Ga., on her return trip being made and returning at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Captain Fitzgerald has not received any instructions yet, but his company will probably be mustered out of service at an early date.

A few weeks ago the Committee on Fire Department was authorized by the City Council to solicit bids for furnishing the fire companies with one thousand feet of hose. None of a certain class and make was wanted. Bids were received from three firms. It was found on examination that of Owens & Barkley, of this city, was five cents a foot less than the others, and the contract was accordingly awarded them. This enterprising firm doesn't propose to be outdone. When it comes to furnishing first-class goods, they can do it for a little money as any house. After the above contract was awarded them and the goods had been ordered, it was found that the fire companies would need only six hundred feet instead of a thousand. The firm on being informed of this released the committee from the contract, so far as it applied to the four hundred feet that was not needed.

In speaking of the Farrell trial in progress at that place this week, the Carlisle Mercury says: "The attorneys assisting the Commonwealth are Judge T. F. Hartigan, Louisville; Judge Garret S. Wall, G. R. Gill, Leslie Worthington, A. M. J. Cochran, Mayfield, and County Attorney B. H. Robinson, Carlisle.

For the defense, Hon. E. C. Phister, Hon. Emery Whitaker, L. W. Robertson, Harry Wadsworth, Thomas Plaster, Mayfield, and Thomas Kennedy, Carlisle.

On Monday afternoon the case was very clearly and ably laid before the jury by Judge Hards for the prosecution, and on Tuesday morning, Thomas Kennedy, in a lengthy and well-worded speech presented the case of the defendant.

The first witness introduced was Miss Lettie Calvert, eldest daughter of the murdered man, and the only member of his family for the prosecution. She was on the stand about six hours, and in a clear and unflinching manner (save the diffidence of a lady in such matters) answered all the questions propounded to her, never once being angry or troubled for a word, thus making one of the best lady witnesses that ever occupied the stand.

Yesterday morning Miss Julia Pierce, a nice young woman, gave very straightforward and damaging testimony against the defendant. She was tall, slender and ladylike in her appearance.

Everybody is loud in their praises of Judge Dehaven, and his manner of presenting. He is in fact, one of the best Judges we ever saw."

It is now reported on good authority that Frisbie & Lake, of Cynthiana, will soon slaughter all their cattle that are now being suffered from pleuro-pneumonia. If this measure had been adopted in the start, it would have been of vast benefit to the cattle interest of this section of the State, and the serious depreciation and loss consequent upon a spread of the disease would have been avoided.

FOILED THE LYNCHERS.

SI KING, A NEGRO FIEND, HANGS HIMSELF IN MISSOURI.

Seven Hundred Men Track Him Through the Woods for Several Days—His Crime—Dead—Buried—Revered—Burned—All's Well.

Mr. Louis, Oct. 8.—Si King, the burly negro who assaulted two women in the vicinity of New London, Mo., two weeks ago, and was hounded by a mob day and night for almost a week, was found hanging in the woods more than a mile from his home. He was buried under the tree where he hung. It is pretty certain that he hanged himself, as his coat and boots lay near him, and he had a pistol and revolver from a neighboring house. The body was decomposed that it had to be buried immediately, though Dr. D. W. Young, brother of the assaulted ladies, declared it should be buried. Five hundred persons viewed the body.

At an early hour on the morning of the 25th ult. Si King, in passing the farm of Mr. E. Jeffries, near New London, Mo., found that a renegade member of his gang, his daughter, Miss Laura, milking cows. He approached the young lady, and before she was aware of his intentions seized her in arms. In the desperate struggle that ensued the girl's dress was torn, and a portion of the black braids that decorated her hair in his arms and carried them and dragged her to a papaw patch where he succeeded in accomplishing his purpose. He then beat her into unconsciousness, at the same time swearing that he would kill her. Leaving her, as he supposed, dead, he proceeded on his way. Laura, in the course of an hour, regained consciousness and dragged herself, conscious of her condition, to the house where a alarm was given, and a party of neighbors armed with shotguns and revolvers started on the trail. He was tracked down the main road a distance of five or six miles west of the residence of J. B. Harris, son-in-law of Mr. Jeffries, where he found Mrs. Harris alone and preparing the midday meal.

This was about 1 o'clock. The negro then revolver'd into Harris' face, killing her son-in-law. He then choked and beat her terribly, but did not succeed in accomplishing a second assault. The lady after a desperate struggle broke away from him and fled to the house of Mr. Jeffries, half a mile distant. The negro took what money he could find in the house and disappeared in the woods adjoining. Some seven hundred men took part in the chase. One colonel made a speech to the crowd, addressed to King, and another boy who reported that he had seen King was compelled to ask the sheriff's protection from the mob, who were hunting that party.

The party of men started being cut down from the top, and King was dug up by unknown persons and thrown on a pile of brush and logs and burned. Only a few bones were found, and the citizens of New London gathered them up and carried them to the sheriff's office, where they were examined with great curiosity. The creation of Si King's body was evidently the work of some of these same citizens, and there seems little desire in the community to find out who they are.

DEMENTED MOTHER.

Dresses Her Babe and Herself and Gives and Takes Poison.

URBANA, O., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Wm. McCluskey, a young matron of this city, arrayed herself and babe in their best, gave the infant morphine and took a deadly dose of the same herself, and lay down on her bed to die.

When her husband arrived about 10 o'clock, he found both mother and babe still upon her mother's arm, and the lady's prayer book and her husband's picture were by her side. The child died at 7 o'clock and the mother is now dying.

The baby took the first prize at the county fair for beauty and was, a lovely child. No name can be assigned for the mother's rash act.

HE CONFESSIONED.

James Winans the Murderer of Clara Hough.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 8.—At the preliminary examination, Dr. C. W. Cromer, lawyer, who has been engaged to defend him, has confessed that Winans killed Clara Hough. She says Winans ran down over the hill into the ravine. He heard a shot, then Winans came back over the hill and lay down beside his victim.

Cromer revealed these facts to the officers when arrested, being under the impression that Winans had confessed, and had charged him with the crime. Winans has since kept his mouth closed, and nothing has been learned from him, who is the youngest.

L. N. STEPHENS.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 8.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville & Nashville road had been held. All the business transacted had been cut and dried before the stockholders adjourned, and adjourned the road in a fairly prosperous condition. All the old directors except four were re-elected. The new men are Thomas Rutter, John H. Inman, J. A. Heywood and Andrew Marcus. New members just left out are T. H. Green, W. S. Williams and Herman Clark, of New York, and James Trabue of Louisville. This afternoon M. Smith will be re-elected president.

Fatal Receptions.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 8.—A special train of six palace cars containing all the comforts of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, on their annual tour to inspection, arrived here. The party was at once driven to the rooms of the Duquesne club. The banquet tendered the party was in every way one of the grandest ever given. There were numerous speeches and such as were calculated to bring on the heartiest responses. Speech-making was continued until a late hour, when the guests of the club retired. They left for Cleveland.

Fatal Shooting.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 8.—Hon. W. S. Mullens and W. W. Watson, both of Byhalia, Miss., had a personal difficulty at Holly Springs, Miss., in which the latter was shot in the abdomen and died. Mullens, each firing two shots. Mullens is an interesting and well-to-do farmer, and at one time represented Marshall county in the legislature. Watson is a man of small means, and had no property in the state. The accident occurred in the presence of Circuit Judge Featherstone, who had just adjourned court. Mullens gave himself up. Great excitement prevails.
